Brief Report on College Library as Learning Resource Facility

Ever since the inception to the college in 1979 the college library has been backbone if the institution it is in rich collection of several books on all the branches of Higher Education. There are around 32177 (with Bar Code)books related to the syllabus UG & PG classes.

The library also provides Book-Bank facility to those students coming from the weaker section of the society along with those belonging SC / ST /OBC category.

These books are issued systematically at the onset of the session which are collected back after the end of the session this facility is very helpful specially for those students who are good in their studies but cannot afford to buy expensive books.

The college library also has a large collection of old question papers which the students refer to while preparing for their exams as they get an idea of the questions frequently asked in the precious years. The facility of getting these question paper photocopied. Also available on college website.

The college library subscribes to 6 no. of news papers, 38 no. of magazines along with quite a many journals and reference books. Books on current affairs and general knowledge help the students to prepare for competitive exams.

There is a provision of writing – off old and torn books to avoid clutter from being collection and are replaced by fresh education and more useful books. New and useful books are purchased every year with the amount allotted by UGC and other funds and the students are always keen to see and use the fresh arrivals.

Stock verification of books on all subjects is done annually and the list of missing books is prepared students and teachers who mishandle or lose the books issued by them are expected to replace them or pay the five time cost of the same.

Library cards for the students are used every year which the students produce before the librarian before getting any of the book issued.

The library is continuously in the process of getting automated using TechCherry Software and library also subscribe N-LIST Programme of INFLIBNET which provides access to more Than 6000 + Journals, 31,35,000 + e-books under N- List & 6, 00,000 e-books through ND.L.
